

Hallie225 Privacy and Safety Policy

We may collect personally identifiable information to respond to your questions on our website and comments about us, our services and mission, and to mail e-newsletters, send emails and any additional updates that may be sent to you either by mail or electronically.

We will never ask you for Social Security Numbers or Passwords when you are making a donation or otherwise communicating with us. Should you receive an email or letter asking you for such information, you are requested to inform us at hallie225.org@gmail.com.

Credit card information is required to ensure your credit card is securely and properly processed. This information is solely used for the processing of the credit card and is not stored on our system. If you feel a charge has been made against your credit card inappropriately, please contact us at hallie225.org@gmail.com and we will endeavor to work with you to obtain a refund of the donation.

We do not share any of the personal information you provide to us with any third party other than service providers of ours who assist us in providing the information and/or services we are providing to you.

Like many other organizations, we may use “cookie” technology, where our servers deposit special codes on a visitor’s computer. This information helps us determine in the aggregate the total number of visitors to the site on an ongoing basis and the types of Internet browsers (e.g., Netscape Navigator, Internet Explorer, Chrome to name a few) and operating systems (e.g., Windows or Apple) used by our visitors. This information is used to enhance your on-line visits. Under no circumstances do we use this information to personally identify visitors or cross-reference the information with any type of personal information that is voluntarily offered on or through the site.

We may modify this policy at any time, in our sole discretion and all modifications will be effective immediately upon our posting of the modifications on this site. Unless we specifically provide otherwise, this policy only applies to this site and our online activities, and it does not apply to any of our offline activities.
